

The Abdeali Kamrudin Award

Abdeali Kamrudin had a strong passion and dedication to the optical industry, accumulating his knowledge of opticianry work from the ground up. Arriving to Canada as a refugee in 1972, Abdeali opened his own lens manufacturing lab and progressed to his first optical retail shop in 1984. Abdeali leaves behind a legacy with his three daughters who are Opticians and continue to run the family business (and its sister location) as well as three grandchildren involved in the optical industry.

Abdeali's family wishes to continue his legacy by supporting the future of Opticianry in the form of a student award for one (1) student in British Columbia who is embarking on their path to become a Licensed Optician.
